#moveyourheart

Dear GAGF 2018 athletes,

when 2 years ago we put the bid, through the Italian Gymnastics Federation, to organise the Golden Age Gym Festival 2018, we were not completely aware of the fact that this event will be really a fantastic week of fun and leisure connecting people from all over Europe and not only.

We get awareness of this issue only attending as observers the last edition in Portoroz where we experienced one never-ending week that will remain unforgettable in our mind and our heart.

From this point and from these feelings we started to organise GAGF 2018 involving first of all the Italian Gymnastic Federation, Pesaro City Municipality and of course hundreds of people who will contribute for the development of 2018 edition. You will discover Pesaro as an ideal location for Golden Age: the beach, the sea, the Old Town, the Italian Food, the music and, hopefully, the climate, all factors creating a mix of good opportunities for you all.

In the name of the Local Organising Committee I'm honoured to extend my invitation to all National federation and welcome them in Pesaro from 16 to 21 September 2018. Do not hesitate to contact us for further information and details.

Arrivederci a Pesaro !

Pesaro is an Italian town of 94,512 inhabitants, capital with Urbino of Pesaro and Urbino province in the Marche region. It is the 2nd largest in the Marche region, after Ancona, and 51st in Italy.

Overlooking the sea and crossed by the river Foglia, Pesaro is a seaside resort and industrial center located between two coastal hills: San Bartolo and Ardizio; its historic center is rich in monuments, especially the Renaissance period. The city has an urban area that extends beyond the municipal boundaries and encompasses several other municipalities such as Montelabbate, Vallefoglia and Mombaroccio.

It is known by the nickname of City of the Bicycle, owing to its extensive network of cycle paths connecting its territory (Pesaro is the first city in Italy for number of urban trips by bike, together with Bolzano); and by that of City of Music, because this city gave birth to the famous composer Gioachino Rossini. Pesaro is currently an official candidate for Italy to "UNESCO Creative City", having as motivation of its commitment the nomination in the development, promotion and review of Rossini's music.

In 2017 Pesaro received the title of European City of Sport together with the city of Aosta, Cagliari and Vicenza.

In Pesaro important cultural events take place yearly, such as the Rossini Opera Festival and the International Festival of Nuovo Cinema.

How to reach Pesaro:

By Train

Adriatic line, railway station of Pesaro. The station is in the old town, not far from the seaside.

By Car

Pesaro is along the national route Adriatic 16 (SS 16) – SS 3 Flaminia – highway A14

By Airplane

Ancona (AOI – 45 km from Pesaro) and Bologna (BLQ – 155 km from Pesaro).
