COACH DECLARATION

As a member of a National Federation of Fédération Internationale de Gymnastique ("FIG") and/or a participant in an event authorized or recognized by FIG (the "Coach"), the Coach hereby declares as follows:

General:

By signing this document, the Coach confirms to have read and understood all relevant International Olympic Committee ("IOC") and FIG Rules, Regulations and their amendments, as available on the FIG website (gymnastics.sport/site/rules and gymnastics.sport/site/pages/safeguarding-page.php). The Coach agrees to comply with, and to be bound by, them.

Data collection:

Categories of personal data

FIG collects and processes the following personal data on the coach: first and last name, nationality, birth date, gender and coach ID. Such personal data is either provided to FIG by the Coach's National Federation, or collected by FIG at the occasion of competitions (e.g. competitions, etc.).

Legal basis for processing of personal data

FIG processes the Coach's personal data (i) based on the performance of the contractual relationship between the Coach and the FIG in the context of this international request, (ii) in order to comply with a legal obligation (in particular in relation to anti-doping regulations) and (iii) based on FIG's legitimate interest, when such interest is not overridden by the interest of the Coach or by the Coach's fundamental rights and freedoms (FIG relies on its legitimate interest in particular in the context of publications on FIG's website in order to advertise FIG's events and competitions). When the processing of the Coach's personal data may not be based on one of these legal basis, FIG will collect the consent of the Coach for such processing.

Purposes for the processing of personal data

FIG enters the Coach's personal data into the FIG database and processes such personal data in particular for the following purposes:

- Granting licences and accreditations for the attendance and participation to FIG events and competitions
- Organization of competitions (through FIG or local organizing committees), including application for visas, reservations of venue, meals and accommodation
- Media operations, including as part of the advertisement of FIG events and competitions to which the Coach participates, such as publication on FIG's website (it being noted that the Coach may refuse the publication of optional information, such as certain biographical information and links to social networks) and through various means of communication
- Research projects and statistics in the field of sport

Transfer of the Coach's personal data to third parties

FIG may transfer the Coach's personal data to third parties as part of the organization of FIG events and competitions, in particular to the following categories of recipients: timekeeping providers, internal or external providers in charge of event planning (e.g., travel or event planning agencies), local organizing committees, media, communication agencies and competent anti-doping agencies.

Transfer of the Coach's personal data in countries outside of the European Union

FIG may transfer the Coach's personal data outside of the European Union, including to countries that do not provide for an adequate level of data protection. In these instances, FIG will put in place the appropriate safeguards such as entering into standard data protection clauses adopted by the European Commission with the recipient. The Coach can contact FIG in order to obtain further information as regards the safeguards put in place.

Period of storage of the Coach's personal data

FIG will retain the Coach's personal data for no longer than necessary to fulfill the purpose for which it was collected. The Coach's personal data is kept for ten (10) years after the creation of their profile and every time a coach participates in a competition, this period is renewed for five (5) years.

However, FIG may retain the Coach's personal data for a longer period of time due to specific statutory retention periods or in the context of archiving for statistical purposes.

Rights of the Coach in relation to the personal data processed by FIG

Within the limit of the applicable legislation, the Coach may request from FIG access to and rectification or erasure of her/his personal data, request the restriction of and object to the processing of her/his personal data and exercise her/his right to data portability. When the processing of personal data by FIG is based on the consent of the Coach, the Coach has the right to withdraw her/his consent at any time. Additionally, the Coach may lodge a complaint with the data protection authority of the place of her/his habitual residence or place of work or place of the alleged infringement.

The Coach may contact FIG for questions in relation to the processing of her/his personal data at:

privacy@fig-gymnastics.org.

Anti-Doping:

1. The Coach has received and had an opportunity to review the FIG Anti-Doping Rules available on: gymnastics.sport?adrules
2. The Coach acknowledges that she/he is bound by, and confirms that she/he shall comply with, all of the provisions of the FIG Anti-Doping Rules (as amended from time to time), the World Anti-Doping Code (gymnastics.sport?adrules) and the International Standards (gymnastics.sport?adrules) issued by the World Anti-Doping Agency ("WADA"), as amended from time to time, and published on WADA's website (together the "Anti-Doping Rules").
3. The Coach acknowledges the authority of FIG and its National Federations and/or National Anti-Doping Organizations under the FIG Anti-Doping Rules (gymnastics.sport?adrules) to enforce, to manage results under, and to impose sanctions in accordance with the FIG Anti-Doping Rules.
4. The Coach acknowledges and agrees that any dispute arising out of a decision made pursuant to the FIG Anti-Doping Rules, after exhaustion of the process expressly provided for in the FIG Anti-Doping Rules, may be appealed exclusively as provided in Article 13 of the FIG Anti-Doping Rules to an appellate body for final and binding arbitration, which in the case of Athlete Support Personnel is the Court of Arbitration for Sport (CAS)
5. The Coach acknowledges and agrees that the decisions of the arbitral appellate body referenced above shall be final and enforceable, and that she/he will not bring any claim, arbitration, lawsuit or litigation in any other court or tribunal.
6. The Coach confirms that she/he has her/himself completed the High Performance Coaches' Education Program about Health and Anti-Doping and obtained this certificate. This is an education program developed by WADA and available on the Anti-Doping Education and learning platform (ADEL) (<https://adel.wada-ama.org>)

The Coach confirms that she/he has read and understood this Licence Application Form.
